

Dravidian University was established with a prime objective of spreading Dravidian fragrance all over the world through Dravidian literature, language, history, to sustain the identity of Dravidian Culture. The University has established Centre for Publications, an exclusive wing to preserve Dravidian essence in all the fields like Archaeology, Folk and Tribal knowledge, Fine arts etc. This is the most significant wing of the University as it is intended to unite all the Dravidians through the translations from one Dravidian language into another Dravidian language. The translations are also done in English so that the Dravidian culture is known all over the world. Much work has been done by the Centre for Publications in the form of publishing Dravidian literature as it is the best means to propagate Dravidian Language, Literature and Culture.

The Centre has already published many special books for the sake of general public. The Centre has published the books of many eminent South Indian Modern poets like 'Gurram Joshiya', 'Gunturu Seshendra Sarma', 'Rayaprolu Subbarao', 'Viswantha Satyanarayana' etc. Besides these books the Centre has also brought out many explanatory works like 'Parijathapaharanam', 'Sarangapani Padalu' etc. As part of bringing out the Dravidian Tribal Culture the Centre has taken keen interest in publishing monographs like 'Tribes of Karnataka Series' which include 'Mysabedas', 'Medas', 'Bairas', 'Kumubis' etc. Monographs on Kerala Tribes include 'Kattunacken', 'Irula', 'Kannikar', 'Aranddan', 'Adiyan'. Under Dravidian Linguistic series many books are published on the grammars of Dravidian Tribes. This series includes 'Koraga Grammar', 'A Comparative Grammar of Gondi Dialects', 'A Descriptive Grammar of Kui Language' etc. Books of 'Ayurvedam' and 'Homeopathy' are published under 'Gruha Saraswathi' Series. Books on 'Lambadi', 'Chenchu' are also found under Telugu Girijana series.

With an intention of enriching the Dravidian Literature through translation the Centre has taken a special interest in publishing Multi-Lingual Dictionaries like 'Common Man's Multilingual Dictionaries' in English-Telugu, Tamil, Kannada, Malayalam & Tulu. Besides this Bilingual Dictionaries have also come out from the Centre which include a 'Bilingual Dictionary of Prepositions from Telugu, Tamil, Kannada, Malayalam' into English. Various dictionaries like 'Telugu Desya Vithpatti Padakosam', 'Vajrakosham' with 2500 words in Telugu have been brought out for sake of the researchers and translators. Keeping in view the students preparing for competitive exams the Centre has published 'Karadeepika', a book consisting of various articles on Language, Literature, Grammar, Prosody & Criticism. "Janapada Vignakosam"/Encyclopedias of south Indian Folklore was published in order to propagate the South Indian Folk tradition, literature and culture. The Centre is credited with 210 books which include many translated books and autobiographies for the sake of the general public.

The prime objective of the Centre is to collect standard and rare books in Dravidian Literature and to publish into other Dravidian and English Languages through translations to satisfy the literary taste of people. The Centre is privileged to publish books in five Dravidian Languages besides English. We are very happy to have a special wing like this with the prime motto of spreading Dravidianess through translations and publications.
